

A simply endearing look at the beginnings, trials and tributes of a sailing club built by ten brothers on its 75th anniversary. Biddeford Pool Yacht Club is a small, 100-family club on Saco Bay about 20 miles south of Portland, Maine. BPYC's story mirrors those of scores of other clubs across the nation, and indeed of the history of recreational sailing in America.

About 21 minutes.